Airfield at Georgiyevsk (44-09 N, 43-28 E)

1. The airdrome is located 2 kilometers northwest of the railroad station of Georgiyevsk and is 3 kilometers west of the Budennovsk railroad line. It is about 2 kilometers east of the Kuma River.
2. This field is used only by civil aircraft. It is very small and is similar to the airfield of Novo-Pyvatigorsk. No details of the field are known,

50X1-HUM

Airfield at Cherkessk (44-14 N, 42-03 E)

3. The small airfield is located on a plain about 2 kilometers north of the Cherkessk railroad station. There is no fence surrounding the field, which has a surface of short grass. There are no buildings, except one small hut where tickets are sold.
4. This field is used only by civil aircraft. A few airplanes of the "Kukuruznik" type make scheduled flights between the cities of Mineralnye-Vody, Novo-Pyvatigorsk, and Cherkessk.

Barracks at Georgiyevsk

5. Barracks are located 5 - 6 kilometers north of the center of Georgiyevsk, 4 kilometers northeast of the city airfield, near the Kuma River. These barracks consist of about 10 brick buildings two and three stories high.
6. The barracks house an infantry army (sic) of ten to fifteen thousand men. This army is undergoing training in the usual infantry weapons, in machine guns, and in small cannon.

Industrial Installations: Fisheries

Fishery No. 2
